

PSQG CONFERENCE ON SECURITY AND ACCESS USEFUL WEBSITES AND INFORMATION

Metropolitan Police Art and Antiques Unit (SCD6)

The Unit is responsible for the collation and dissemination of intelligence pertaining to art crime and continues to run and update the London Stolen Art Database. Consideration is being given to possibility of opening this database to allow the public access. The Art & Antiques Unit still targets top tier art criminals, but will not normally be directly responsible for the arrest of suspects or the seizure of stolen property.

The Art & Antiques Unit is based at Wellington House, 67-73 Buckingham Gate, London SW1E 6BE. 020 7230 2150

<http://www.met.police.uk/artandantiques>

London Stolen Art Database

http://www.met.police.uk/artandantiques/ACIS\_database.htm

Museums Libraries and Archives Council

William Brown

For further information please contact the National Security Adviser on 020 7273 1451 or email NationalSecurityAdviser@mla.gov.uk

<http://www.mla.gov.uk/website/policy>

Cultural Property Advice

<http://www.culturalpropertyadvice.gov.uk>

Society of Archivists

Publication: II Security by F.I. Dunn (1994) iv + 18pp. ISBN 0 902886 47 9 £15 (£7)

<http://www.archives.org.uk/publications/bestpracticeguidelines>

CILIP rare Books and Special Collections Group

Theft of Books and Manuscripts from Libraries: an advisory code of conduct for booksellers and librarians

<http://www.archives.org.uk/publications/bestpracticeguidelines>

Museums Association

<http://www.museumsassociation.org>

YouTube

How to pick old display case locks

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XFvwLOmQ3JI>

Tim Harris, LMA tim.harris@cityoflondon.gov.uk